APPENDIX

The Tucker Act (28 U. S. C. 41 (20), Act of March 3, 1887, c. 359, Secs. 1, 2, 24 Stat. 505, as amended) provides, in part, that the district courts shall have original jurisdiction as follows:

* * * * *

"(20) SUITS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES. Twentieth. Concurrent with the Court of Claims, of all claims not exceeding $10,000 founded upon the Constitution of the United States or any law of Congress, or upon any regulation of an executive department, or upon any contract, express or implied, with the Government of the United States, or for damages, liquidated or unliquidated, in cases not sounding in tort, in respect to which claims the party would be entitled to redress against the United States, either in a court of law, equity, or admiralty, if the United States were suable, and of all set-offs, counterclaims, claims for damages, whether liquidated or unliquidated, or other demands whatsoever on the part of the Government of the United States against any claimant against the Government in said court; * * *."
